

AWCT are a professional and independent forklift consulting company

Expert advice based on knowledge from the inside

Our professional and experienced consultants offer unparalleled knowledge in helping companies fully comply with Worksafe requirements and address the current climate of heightened enforcement. We can provide help for all your business management needs and have specialist consultants with varied areas of expertise.

Our consultants identify any hazards, program deficiencies and potential Worksafe violations in your operations and develop programs to address them.

AWCT provides a diverse range of services to assist you with regulatory compliance requirements. Whether it is a written program or company-wide employee training, AWCT can enhance the qualifications & safety awareness of your most valuable asset "your employees".

We specialise in all facets of Forklift and Materials Handling safety.

Please contact our friendly staff and see how our company can help yours.
